

ANNOUNCEMENT

Africana Homestead Legacy Publishers (AHLP) Inc. is suspending its acceptance of book proposals for all types of literature, starting July 1, 2011, and ending June 30, 2013. By taking this action, AHLP will be able to focus its resources on the publishing projects that it has already acquired. That includes forthcoming, front list, and back list titles.

Please also note that when AHLP resumes accepting book proposals in 2013, it will only accept proposals for books in these categories:

- nonfiction for adult readers
- fiction for adult readers
- nonfiction chapter books for young adult readers, ages 13-17
- fiction chapter books for young adult readers, ages 13-17
- nonfiction chapter books for older juveniles, ages 9-12
- fiction chapter books for older juveniles, ages 9-12

Although AHLP's imprint Nefu Books will continue to release children's picture books, the projects will be works that the company commissions. We will not accept any proposals for children's picture books from the general public.
